Session Goals

- Explore various definitions, tools, and frameworks that inform trust-based philanthropy.
- Deepen understanding of trust-based philanthropy as it connects to cross-cutting goals of racial equity, enterprise capital, and financial health.
- Uplift models of trust-based philanthropy in corporate, private, and community foundations.
- Share frameworks and tools for community engagement and accountability.
- Learn how community inclusion is influencing change in data, reporting, accountability and metrics in grantmaker strategies – without creating undue burdens for grantee partners who seek grants.

2024 National Grantmaker Conference

The Power of Intentionality
