

East Coast Regional Events & Administrative Coordinator

Job Posting

The Asset Funders Network (AFN) is a national membership organization engaging philanthropy to advance economic opportunity and prosperity.

The Asset Funders Network is seeking a dynamically skilled and highly motivated individual to join our growing organization. The East Coast Regional Events & Administrative Coordinator is responsible for providing administrative event-related support, both virtual and in-person. This will include meeting scheduling, invitation design, event marketing, attendee management, development of agendas and PowerPoints, technical assistance setting-up and running Zoom meetings and webinars, as well as post event survey management and attendee tracking. This role will include managing event announcements and registration from the website or Asset Funders Network (AFN) selected software.

This role will report directly to the East Coast Program Officer and support all program officers in our East Coast Regional Team - including Buffalo, Greater New York Area, Pennsylvania and The Carolinas.

Activities and events will vary month to month with an anticipated support required for execution of approximately 4-5 events per month.

Skills and Qualifications

Full COVID-19 vaccination required
